Pontesbury Festival 2025 – Writing Competition

'It happened in Pontesbury'

The Pontesbury Festival writing competition is being organised by Friends of Pontesbury Library, with entries welcomed from age groups as follows:

Primary school pupils (up to 11)
Secondary school pupils (up to 16)
16s to 18s
Adults

While donations to Friends of Pontesbury Library are always welcome, the competition is free to enter and you may submit as many entries as you wish. The style of writing is up to you – prose, poetry, rap etc. The subject may be historical, factual, reminiscence, fantasy, sci-fi, romance, horror ….. let your imagination fly!

- Prizes for each age group
- Maximum word limit - 500 words (no minimum).
- Take 'It Happened in Pontesbury' as your starting point but feel free to originate your own title for your writing
- Entries to be received by Saturday 31st May
- Winners to be announced during the weekend of Pontesbury Festival
- Entries may be submitted online: -
  Attach and email to info@pontesburylibrary.co.uk
- Printed or handwritten entries to be hand delivered, or posted to Pontesbury Library, The Pavilion, Hall Bank, Pontesbury, SY5 0RF

To ensure judging is fair and unbiased, please do not show your name, or age on your submission, only on the form below or with accompanying email online

---

Pontesbury Festival Writing Competition Entry Form

Name: ----------

Age (if 18 or under): ----------

Contact details: ----------